THIS SURVEY IS CLOSED. THANKS TO EVERYONE WHO PARTICIPATED.

The more we know about our audience, the better we can tailor our projects, product reviews, and technique tutorials. We have just a few short multiple-choice questions, which should take you about five minutes to complete. We promise there will be no math story problems or trick questions about who exactly is buried in Grant's tomb. If you include your email at the completion of the survey, you'll be entered in a drawing to win a mystery grab bag of cool fabric cuts direct from the S4H Stash. It's an easy way to let us know what you would be the most interested in seeing right here on Sew4Home.

We always have a bowl chockfull of ideas to dip into, and we keep track of the latest trends, colors, and designs – online as well as in books, catalogs, and magazines, even on the fashion runways and in the latest TV shows. But, we also want to make sure we continue to bring our fans and followers the type of inspiration and information you're looking for.

What would you like to make? Which projects are the ones that not only inspire you to turn on your machine but also make you want to share that project with your friends and family? Are there techniques you've always wondered about? Is there a tool or notion you wish you knew how to use? Inquiring minds want to know.

Click the button below to go to the survey, and rest assured we will not sell the information or share your personal data with anyone.

We have had some similar surveys in the past, and even if you'd shared your ideas and information with us before, we'd still love to hear from you again. It's been a couple years since we last reached out; things change and interests evolve. This is a great way to let us know what's important now.

Remember to include your email at the conclusion of the survey to be entered to win the prize bundle. That email as well as your responses will be kept private.

This survey and the accompanying prize drawing is open to all our Sew4Home visitors - both US and outside the US.

The survey will remain active through April 30, 2017. The random drawing from all completed surveys with included emails will be held shortly thereafter. The winner will be notified via email to confirm shipping details.

Thank you for your participation. The more we know – the better Sew4Home becomes.
